Testimonial

I have known Trevor Kempster for over 16 years and in my dealings with him, he has always acted honestly and with the highest level of integrity.

He is blunt, straight talking and has a very black and white stance surrounding passive fire protection compliance.

He has a passion for the passive fire protection industry, has an almost unique ability to see issues and then research, develop and deliver solutions to his clients.

Since Trevor immigrated to Australia, I have seen him devote his working life to improving the Australian fire protection industry and raising the bar in life safety and asset protection.

In my opinion, Trevor is one of the main reasons the Australian passive fire protection industry has grown and become the established industry it is today.

His energy and devotion in promoting compliance is inspiring and I would recommend anyone wanting to know more about Australian passive fire protection talk to Trevor.

Yours Sincerely
